Art Unit: 1742

1. The Examiner has carefully considered Applicant's Response of 7/8/05. In light of Applicant's Amendment, the Examiner makes additional argument and adds a second rejection. In regard to the prior rejection and argument directed at Dorfman et al., the Examiner finds that the additional steps in the heat treatment are not precluded by Applicant's claim language.

2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

3. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dorfman et al. US Pat. No. 6,103,392 (Dorfman et al.).

Dorfman et al. discloses the invention substantially as claimed. Dorfman et al. discloses a method of forming a W-Cu composite comprising:

pressing a W-Cu starting composite powder;

forming a W-Cu composite powder by co-reduction of a starting powder comprising W and Cu oxides (col. 4, lines 41-53); and sintering the formed W-Cu composite powder by a sintering cycle that contains parameters that substantially overlap those as claimed by Applicant (col. 13, lines 14-30, in particular look to lines 26-30).

The additional steps during the heating are not precluded by Applicant's claim language.

Art Unit: 1742

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to select any portion of the range, including the claimed range, from the broader range disclosed in the prior art, because the prior art finds that the entire disclosed range has a suitability utility.

Overlapping ranges have been held to be a prima facie case of obviousness, see MPEP 2144.05.

4. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jech et al.

Jech et al. discloses at col. 3, line 36 to col. 4, line 15, and col. 9, lines 5-54, the invention substantially as claimed. Jech et al. discloses a method of forming a W-Cu composite comprising:

pressing a W-Cu starting composite powder;

forming a W-Cu composite powder by co-reduction of a starting powder comprising W and Cu oxides; and sintering the formed W-Cu composite powder by a sintering cycle that contains parameters that substantially overlap those as claimed by Applicant (col. 9, lines 46-54).

The additional steps during the heating are not precluded by Applicant's claim language.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to select any portion of the range, including the claimed range, from the broader range disclosed in the prior art, because the prior art finds that the entire disclosed range has a suitability utility.

Art Unit: 1742

Overlapping ranges have been held to be a prima facie case of obviousness, see MPEP 2144.05.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
